

OCTOBER
DISABILITY
AWARENESS MONTH

ssd services for students with disabilities

Disability and Accommodations at UT

As part of Disability Awareness Month,
Services for Student with Disabilities (SSD) invites you to join them for a

BROWN BAG SESSION

An informal discussion about disability and accommodations at UT

Have you ever wondered why some students get extra time on their exams?

Are you curious about why your instructor asks for a volunteer to share their notes?

Do you want to know who can qualify as a student with a disability?

This is your chance to ask questions and increase your understanding of why and how we accommodate students with disabilities at UT. Bring your lunch and enjoy a casual Q&A session with SSD staff.

Wednesday,
October 1, 2014
11:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.
Student Activity Center
SAC 1.118

Feel free to drop by and participate as your schedule allows

No RSVP required.

For more information or to request accommodations, please email:
ssd-advocate@austin.utexas.edu

Students, faculty and staff are encouraged to attend!

