

OCTOBER
DISABILITY
AWARENESS MONTH

As part of Disability Awareness Month, Services for Student with Disabilities (SSD) invites you to join them for the

disABILITY ADVOCATE FOUNDATION TRAINING

Disability is part of every aspect of campus life. The disABILITY Advocate Program is designed to help faculty, staff, and students at The University of Texas at Austin develop knowledge and advocacy skills to promote inclusion and access for people with disabilities. Over 1,000 students, faculty, and staff have become Advocates on campus and this is your opportunity to get involved!

This engaging two-hour training provides a foundation in disability education and awareness and allows for interaction and discussion among participants. Topics include disability-related language, how to recognize and reduce barriers for people with disabilities, the perspective of disability as an aspect of diversity, and how to make a positive difference on campus for people with disabilities.

Wednesday,
October 8, 2014
1–3 p.m.

Student Activity Center
SAC 1.118

This training is open to students, faculty, and staff, but space is limited so please RSVP at:
